

Suburban Coalition \hat{O} 2005

Howard Hill II, P.O. Box 77356
Washington, DC. 20013 - 7356

It's Not A Game for Men and Women this Summer! The Suburban Coalition \hat{O} Summer Classic and the Suburban Coalition \hat{O} HS Prep Showcase will feature the area's best men and women basketball players in the region. Our staff would like to thank you and your team in advance for participating in this year's 11th Annual Summer League starting Saturday, June 25, 2005. Your non-refundable deposit should be in by April 30th to hold your spot and remaining balance due by May 31, 2005, No Exceptions! Please contact commissioner for league deposits, because of the three variations of level play, each deposit amount will vary. League commissioner is currently researching other area leagues to make sure your fee is the lowest and most competitive in the Washington metropolitan area. Your generous contribution will allow kids to attend our 5-Star basketball camp and assist Oxon Hill HS in maintaining their NEW state-of-the-art gym facility. Last year, participants benefited by competing against basketball stars from across the country and it proved to be beneficial as Bowie State University made it to the 2004 Division II Championship game and is now currently ranked #1 in the country, in Division II basketball. Potomac HS, last summer's High School Prep Showcase Varsity winners, won the 2005 County Championship crown and also the Maryland state title. The Suburban Coalition \hat{O} will give you great exposure, the opportunity to make a name for yourself, play against the best college competition in the nation, work hard over the summer staying in shape, receive advice on the court competing against past/present NBA players, compete in front of area public and private high school coaches, overseas agents and most importantly meet several NCAA coaches, NBA and NBDL scouts, celebrities and other special guests. That's Priceless!

Each pro and college team is expected to wear the official 2005 Suburban Coalition \hat{O} Summer Classic uniform. Champions will receive individual awards and participate for FREE in 2006. Congratulations to last year's Champions the DC Jammers, who will compete for FREE this summer. The Suburban Coalition \hat{O} family asks for your continued support so we can again be the best, most competitive and most well organized summer basketball league in the metropolitan area. League is certified and sanctioned by the NCAA and NBA and this summer courtside laptops will assist us gather team and player individual statistics. Always staying on top of technology and our competition. For maximum exposure, register your JV and/or Varsity Boys and/or Girls teams in The Suburban Coalition \hat{O} HS Prep Showcase. Which is sure to bring out high school/college scouts from across the country. As always thank you for your continued support and a special thanks to the NCAA staff and also Coach Gary Williams for allowing the University of Maryland players to play nowhere else in the summer. It's Not A Game!
